Tutorial Quick Reference Guide

Completing the Assess Your Skills Activity

Each project includes an Assess Your Skills—Before activity. Use this activity to rate your skill level in key areas before you begin the project.

After all the assignments in the project are complete, you will have the chance to assess your skills again and reflect on what you've learned.

You will see a series of statements which you will use to evaluate your skill level.

Completing the Assess Your Skills Activity

Rate each statement from 1 to 5 as explained in the directions.

ASSESS YOUR SKILLS—BEFORE

I am aware of where I need to improve my communication (listening, thinking, and speaking) and leadership skills.

The screenshot shows a digital assessment interface. At the top, the title "ASSESS YOUR SKILLS—BEFORE" is displayed. Below the title is a statement: "I recognize how this project applies to my life outside of Toastmasters." A progress indicator shows five numbered steps (1-5), with step 3 highlighted in a dark blue circle. Below the progress indicator are three buttons: "BACK" (dark red), "NEXT" (grey), and "SUBMIT" (blue). A mouse cursor is hovering over the "SUBMIT" button. At the bottom of the interface, there is a footer containing the Toastmasters logo with the tagline "WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE", a dropdown menu labeled "Select to move to another section:", and the text "Motivational Strategies 1: Ice Breaker". A "Directions" button is also visible in the bottom right corner.
